Plaintiff's Supplemental Jury Instruction #14

Plaintiff Matthew Souter submits this additional proposed jury instruction regarding the use of force by law enforcement officers in self-defense during the course of an arrest in light of the trial court's remarks at the close of evidence on August 18, 2022.

Plaintiff's Proposed Instruction #14

§1983: "Reasonable Use of Force" By Officers in Self-Defense Explained

Use of force decisions by law enforcement in self-defense must be based on a reasonable officer's conclusion that an immediate threat existed to the officer's safety justifying the particular use of force. Liability for excessive force will attach if the officer's conclusion is objectively unreasonable or if the force employed was disproportionate to the risk of harm present. The reasonableness of any force used in claimed self-defense must be evaluated at the moment the force is used for that alleged reason.
